Your financial support for CABPRO means we can keep up the good fight, helping you and others protect your property rights, fight for less government regulation, work for lower fees and taxes, and insure that a voice for balanced decision-making is heard. Very often, land use issues become controversial, and CABPRO helps the public, elected officials, and the media realize what's really happening – a truth squad of sorts. Without your financial support, our ability to assist you and others is severely limited. While CABPRO is a not-for-profit organization, we have deliberately declined the 501c3 status for two reasons. The private corporation designation allows us to keep our membership confidential, and it frees us from unnecessary outside controls. Membership benefits are impressive: a monthly newsletter; email alerts; special reports, workshops, mailings; luncheon meetings on timely topics; networking opportunities; resource library; professional staff to serve you, and the satisfaction of knowing you are a critical part of the effort to protect our constitutional rights.
